

Cultural Itinerary

DAY 1 - EXPLORING WEST PALM BEACH

MORNING

- Check-in: The Ben West Palm, a stylish hotel located on the West Palm Beach Waterfront.
- Breakfast: Hearty breakfast at Hive Bakery & Café.
- Activity: Norton Museum of Art. The museum is home to a diverse collection of American, European, and contemporary art, and a beautiful sculpture garden.

AFTERNOON

- Lunch: Casual lunch at “Hullabaloo,” known for its creative comfort food.
- Activity: Clematis Street, a lively street lined with shops, cafes, bars, and restaurants.
- Snack: Ice cream at Sloan’s, an ice cream shop steps away from the waterfront.
- Activity: Historical Society of Palm Beach County, which houses a permanent collection of millions of objects and images that span over 12,000 years of Palm Beach County and Florida history.

EVENING

- Dinner: Pistache French Bistro, upscale, featuring a lively happy hour and French-inspired small plates with great views.
- Activity: Kravis Center for the Performing Arts, a theater where visitors can catch a live performance, from concerts to Broadway shows, at this renowned cultural venue.

DAY 2 – ART AND HISTORY IN PALM BEACH

MORNING

- Breakfast: American-style breakfast at Surf Side Diner in Palm Beach.
- Activity: Worth Avenue Historic Walking Tour with historian Rick Rose.

AFTERNOON

- Lunch: Renato’s, a restaurant in the heart of Palm Beach that serves classic Italian dishes in an elegant courtyard setting.
- Activity: The Flagler Museum, the historic winter residence of Henry Flagler, where visitors can learn about the Gilded Age in Florida.

EVENING

- Dinner: Spruzzo, the rooftop restaurant of The Ben Hotel with beautiful views of the Intracoastal Waterway.
- Activity: Palm Beach Dramaworks, an intimate venue for thought-provoking theater performances

DAY 3 - NATURE AND CULINARY DELIGHTS

MORNING

- Breakfast: Proper Grit, a restaurant on the first floor of The Ben.
- Activity: Mounts Botanical Garden: Immersion in lush greenery and a variety of themed gardens.

AFTERNOON

- Lunch: Grato, a restaurant that serves modern Italian cuisine in a stylish atmosphere.
- Activity: The Society of the Four Arts, a cultural campus with exhibits, a library, a sculpture garden, and more.
- Activity: The Breakers, a historic waterfront hotel in Palm Beach.

EVENING

- Dinner: Seafood dinner at PB Catch Seafood & Raw Bar, known for its fresh catches.
- Activity: Sunset walk along Palm Beach’s beautiful Lake Trail.