

Outdoorsy Itinerary

DAY 1 – PADDLEBOARDING

MORNING

- Check-in: Jupiter Beach Resort & Spa
- Activity: Paddleboarding along the Intracoastal Waterway—the perfect activity to unwind and relax, while doing some physical activity. The lucky ones might also spot sea turtles, manatees, and more sea creatures.

AFTERNOON

- Lunch: Guanabanas, a laid-back restaurant with beautiful views of the Intracoastal Waterway and a fun TIKI-bar style.
- Activity: Johnathan Dickinson State Park, the largest State Park in Southeast Florida where visitors can enjoy paved and off-road biking, equestrian and hiking trails, boating, canoeing, and kayaking along the river.

EVENING

- Dinner: Lucky Shuck, a buzzing seafood and oyster bar with views of the Jupiter Lighthouse.
- Activity: Cocktail time at the Beacon, a rooftop bar steps away from Lucky Shuck, which also offers views of the lighthouse.

DAY 2 – PARK, BEACH & TOUR

MORNING

- Breakfast: Raw Juice, a smoothie and juice bar focused on sustainability. They offer acai bowls, salads, juices, and more.
- Activity: Riverbend Park, an area with nearly 10 miles of hiking/biking trails, 7 miles of equestrian trails, and 5 miles of canoeing/kayaking trails.

AFTERNOON

- Lunch: Dune Dog Café, an open-air café that is a favorite of locals and vacationers alike since 1994.
- Activity: Beach time at Coral Cove Park. This beach is popular for its rock formations a few feet offshore and in just a few inches of water.

EVENING

- Activity: Lighthouse Sunset Tour. Visitors can climb the 105 steps of the Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse and take in the spectacular sunset views while learning fascinating history.
- Dinner: Latitudes, a new coastal dining experience at the Jupiter Beach Resort & Spa.
- Activity: Night out at Square Grouper, a TIKI-Bar with live music, cocktails, and food with a laid-back atmosphere.

DAY 3 – OCEAN CONSERVATION

MORNING

- Brunch: 1000 North, a restaurant with a beautiful waterfront view of the Jupiter Lighthouse.

AFTERNOON

- Activity: Sea turtle exploration at the Loggerhead Marinelife Center, a nonprofit scientific destination focused on ocean and sea turtle conservation.
- Snack: Ice Cream at Cones and Coffee, shared space between Coral Cones and Pumphouse Coffee Roaster.
- Activity: Relax at the Jupiter Beach Resort & Spa.

EVENING

- Dinner: Blackbird, a modern Pan-Asian restaurant with indoor and outdoor seating.
